WOMAN INVADES AFRICAN WILDS

All Alone She Makes 1,000-Mile Trip Across Desert to Explore the City of Kufra.

WELL RECEIVED BY TRIBES

Reaches Sacred Oasis City Where Only One European, an Explorer of 40 Years Ago, Has Ever Been Before.

London.—England has ceased to be thrilled over the spectacle of a woman M. P.; now a woman explorer is claiming public attention.

She is Mrs. Rosita Forbes, chic, vivacious and charming, who has just returned to London after traveling 1,100 miles across the Libyan desert in Africa to explore the city of Kufra, headquarters of the Senussi tribe, a fanatic and hostile group whose military adventures recently have caused anxiety in Egypt.

Traveled Alone.

Mrs. Forbes, wearing the native costume, was alone in her daring adventure. She joined a native caravan and, riding a camel, finally crossed the Egyptian frontiers and reached the sacred oasis city where only one European—an explorer of 40 years ago—has ever been before. Here she was well received by the tribesmen and given a safeguard back to civilization, but throughout the journey she was surrounded by hostile natives who would have killed her had they known that she was a white woman.

The start of the trip was made from Benghazi, the Mediterranean end of the ancient caravan route from the central Sudan across the Libyan desert. She had previously arranged for a form of passport from the Senus-si, but this was of little value, as the tribes through which she passed did not recognize their sovereignty. Spies surrounded the caravan and at the sacred city of Taj the entire party was placed under arrest and thrown into a native prison. After great difficulty they were released and allowed to proceed.

Welcomed by Chiefs.

At the osases of Kufra the chiefs welcomed Mrs. Forbes and told her of their plans for political power. On the return journey she again had trouble with the natives and was at one time forced to disguise herself as a man.

Mrs. Forbes made a survey of the country during her journey and collected much valuable information about the national aims of the Senussi tribes, but concealed a small kodak under her flowing native robes and made snapshots through a hole cut in the dress. Returning to London, she has now laid the results of her explorations before the British government and was received by the king.
The Senussi are becoming a powerful force in Africa, and when during the war they allied themselves with the Turks, Egypt was fortified against them at a cost of $300,000,000.

TOBACCO SACKS YIELD $1,325

Man, Eighty-Two, Thought Penniless, Hoards Small Fortune—Sleeps in Box.

Rockford, Ill.—Walking from Danville, Ill., toward Dixon, Ill., where he expected to pass the summer, Samuel Portner, eighty-two, found lodging in an old dry goods box in an alley, where a policeman found him asleep.
Portner was taken to the police station. A stick, to which was attached a gunny sack containing morsels of food and a tin can in which Portner had occasionally prepared coffee, was thrown into a corner of the station by the officer. The aged traveler was so eager to retain possession of the sack that officers examined it. They discovered two tobacco sacks filled with paper money and securities, including two $50 bills and a government pension check for $150—the amount totaling $1,325.

TAXIS WHERE CHARIOTS SPED

Motor Vehicles Replace Many Horse-Drawn Cabs in Streets of Rome.

Rome, Italy.—Taxicabs have just invaded Rome, replacing many horse-drawn cabs, which have held sway in the capital of the Caesars for centuries.

The taxicab, though welcomed with open arms by the general mass of Romans, has met for years a stonewall opposition for the right to circulate in Roman streets. The 5,000 cab drivers and liverymen fought its use and warned the city administration they would be defeated at election if the taxicabs were admitted.

This opposition has in a measure been overcome, but there still remains some cab drivers' prejudice against motor vehicles in their business. They have insisted that the chauffeurs be mainly recruited from the cab drivers.

Prairie Dog Meat.

Sibert, Colo.—Prairie dog meat was served as the piece de resistance at a banquet here and pronounced by the guests to be equally as palatable as fried chicken. It is believed to be the first time the prairie bow-wows have graced the festive board in this section.

THE WAR IN ASIA MINOR.

The Greek campaign has already won much more important successes than fell to the Greeks last spring; and if they are taking their time in preparing for the advance on Angora, all the better. This offensive will not outrun its communications.
Constantine seems to have a better chance of ending the Turks than he has ever had before, or than any Greek king has had in 750 years.

The rumor that his successes are largely due to an ample supply of British munitions is plausible enough, but there is no occasion for the display of outraged morality in which some French newspapers have indulged. Everybody knows that Mustapha Kemal has got most of his munitions from the French and Italians. Whatever Constantine did against the Allies during the war, and it was a good deal, the Turks did still more. Quite aside from moral considerations, the fate of the Franco-Turkish agreement might suggest to French politicians that the Turk is no more trustworthy today than before 1914. Some of the policies of the Quai d'Orsay are strongly remisiscent of the brilliant improvisations of Napoleon III.—New York

State of South Carolina, Fairfield County.

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the powers contained in the deed of C. L. Wray to the undersigned, said deed dated the 21st day of January, 1920, and recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for Fairfield county on the 23rd day of January, 1920, in Book "BH" at page 555, having failed to effect a sale of the said land at private sale according to the terms of said deed, the undersigned will sell the tract of land below described at public auction in the public square at Ridgeway, S. C., to the highest bidder; terms of sale one-third of purchase price to be paid in cash at the time of the sale and the balance secured by a bond of the purchaser with mortgage of the premises to be paid in two equal annual instalments with interest from the date of sale at the rate of 7 per cent per annum payable annually until paid in full, said sale to take place on the 17th day of August, 1921, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon.
The tract is described in said deed as follows:

Cause of Appendicitis.

When the bowels are constipated the lower bowels or large intestines become packed with refuse matter, that is made up largely of germs.
These germs enter the vermiform appendix and set up inflammation, which is commonly known as appendicitis. Take Chamberlain's Tablets when needed and keep your bowels regular and you have little to fear from appendicitis.

666 has more imitations that any other Fever Tonic on the market, but no one wants imitations.

666 cures Malaria, Chills and Fever, Bilious Fever, Colds and La-Grippe, or money refunded.

Billiousness and Constipation.

"For years I was troubled with billiousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally," writes Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala.

Championship Form

We are very proud of the world's stock chassis records won by our Daytona 6-66 model. But we are not race "fans" or speed fanatics.

We believe in heroic tests—not because they prove that our cars are fast—but because they prove that our cars are strong, durable, trustworthy.

We are convinced that championship form is the one best guarantee of all round efficiency. A car that is capable of 90 miles an hour must be blessed with a sound, robust constitution and immense reserve powers.

If this sounds reasonable, why not take the next logical step. Have a ride in a 6-66 model and compare it with any other car, at any price, on the American market. Then, you will understand what we mean by championship form.
